

DAILY SCENE AT THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION AUDITORIUM

REAL INDIANS MAKE SPORT AT BIG SHOW

Mimic Attack on Fort Boone Part of Winchester Day Celebration.

CADETS' DRILL A FEATURE

The Boys From Culver Greatly Please Large Crowd Which Watches Their Movements.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION
AUDITORIUM, August 23.—Real Indians, giving vent to real war whoops, a great celebration by the Culver Cadets, from the Culver Military School at Culver, Ind., and the annual reunion of the National Association of Mexican War Veterans, were a few of the many things that made the fair interesting to-day. The day was a huge success.
Thousands of people were on the grounds.
The Indians—Sioux, Chippewas, Cheyennes, Cherokees and Seminoles, full blood—figured in the reproduction of the capture of Fort Boone, Ky., by the red men. The Indians of today are now attached to the 101 Wild West Show, performing on the Warpath. The recapture of the fort was a rattling good spectacle. Even those who were in the original fort when it was captured were impersonated today. They were made up as pioneers.
On the Kentucky reservation at the exposition is a reproduction of Fort Boone, which also serves as the Kentucky State Building. It was Winchester, Ky. Day at the fair, and the play at the reservation preceded the formal exercises.

The assault on and capture of the fort were carefully planned. The surroundings of this new Fort Boone are admirable for the reproduction of the capture of the famous pioneer history, being in the midst, as it is, of a tall pine grove. The waters of Hampton Roads wash the reservation, and two miles off shore floated some of the finest specimens of war-ships in the world.

Descendants Take Part.
The participants in the fort of those who took part in to-day's mimic conflict were descendants of those who took part in the original defense of the fort, and those who rescued the young women who were carried off by the savage raiders. In the original attack, Betsy Callaway and Frances Callaway were captured by the Indians. They were subsequently rescued by the male inhabitants of the fort.

To-day the Misses Callaway were represented by Miss Ruth Searey and Annie Lee Sutherland, great-granddaughters of Bartlett Searey, one of the fort's leading defenders. Jenimma Boone, a daughter of Daniel, was represented by Miss Goldie Perry.
The young women of to-day represent the best type of the young womanhood of Kentucky, and acquitted themselves handsomely. They acted as though inspired by the spirit of their historic ancestors.

The Indians, and some others, who had been made up for the occasion, had been carefully coached in the part which they were to play, and their swooping down on new Fort Boone was something fierce to behold.
Several thousand people witnessed the performance.

Following is the cast of characters of those in the fort participating in to-day's conflict:

"Daniel Boone"—Captain C. E.
Buse.
"Jemima Boone"—Miss Goldie
Perry.
"Betsy Callaway"—Miss Ruth Searey.
"Frances Callaway"—Miss Annie Lee Sutherland.
"Samuel Henderson"—Charles Witt.
"Thomas Callaway"—L. E. Neveds.
"Benjamin Logan"—E. Perry.
"Pioneers"—G. W. Lewis, Rome Martin, W. M. Johnson, Joe Tanner, Horace Gilbert, Walter Bolkin, Robert Spencer, Thomas Proctor, Vance Martin, W. F. Shanks, Prewitt Browne, E. Ervine, Miss and children of the pioneers in the fort.
Master of Ceremonies—R. R.
Perry.
After the assault had been made, the fort captured, and the young women rescued, the more formal celebration of Winchester Day was entertained. A large crowd was also present for these, about 200 of those present being from Winchester and vicinity.

Culver Cadets' Day.
It was also Culver Cadets' Day at Jamestown, and the boys, 400 strong, from the famous military school out in Indiana, had the fair turned over to them. The boys started celebrating early and kept it up until the glare of electric lights had died out to-night.
The formal exercises of the cadets began at 10 o'clock, when the entire cadet corps, including the Black Horse Cavalry Troop, was reviewed by Chairman Foss and eight members of the Naval Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives, Rear-Admiral P. F.
Harrington, U. S. N., chairman of the Jamestown Naval Board; Major John S. Mallory, adjutant-general on the staff of General Fred D. Grant, and others of distinction. Congressmen Foss and the other Representatives were met at Discovery Landing by the Black Horse Troop and escorted to the reviewing stand.

Under the command of Major L. R.
Gignilliat, the cadets formed for review. A band of sixteen pieces, one of the best bands that has been at the exposition headed the parade. The infantry led the line, formed by a company of light artillery and then the Black Horse Troop. Military and naval men highly complimented the movement.
Troops counter-marched after the review and gave an exhibition of fancy drills. They showed training to a high degree. From the parade grounds the cadets marched into Convention Hall to continue the exercises.

Mexican War Veterans.
As their special guests in the Convention Hall they had the National Association of Mexican War Veterans.
Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellison, director of history and education at the exposition, delivered the address of welcome to both the cadets and their guests on behalf of the exposition and the State. This was responded to by Congressman Foss, who highly complimented the cadets on the showing they made.

The chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee, also had much to say about the excellence of the navy. Colonel Lewis F.
Beeler, of Baltimore, president of the National Association of Mexican War Veterans, responded to Lieutenant-Governor Ellison on behalf of the veterans.

Luncheon followed these proceedings, and immediately thereafter the cadets gave further exhibition drills on Lee Parade, and then boat drills in John Smith's Basin at the Government Pier.

A boat crew of Culver cadets this afternoon won a rowing race from a picked crew of the United States receiving-ship Franklin.
The women's race was given them to-night.
It was immediately accepted, and a 300-yard race between the north end of the Government Pier and Discovery Landing followed.
The cadets finished two lengths ahead of their rivals. The cadets used government cutters in their boat drills. The cadets have received a challenge from the boys of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, which has been accepted, and the race will be rowed next Monday at Annapolis.
Another race will be rowed with the receiving-ship Franklin to-morrow.

A ball, the social event of the cadets at the exposition, was given them to-night in Convention Hall. It began at 9 o'clock, and was the concluding number on their program for the day.

BIGGEST NAVY OF ALL, SAYS FOSS

Chairman of House Committee Declares That Uncle Sam's Fighters Should Be Best.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
AUDITORIUM, August 23.—A notable incident in the reunion to-day of the Mexican War veterans, was the speech made by Congressman Foss, who in his music which all enjoyed so much was furnished by the Mexican Band.
Lieutenant-Governor Ellison welcomed the veterans to Virginia and the exposition, and in closing introduced Chairman Foss, of the House Naval Affairs Committee, as the orator of the occasion. The Representative in his speech again pressed his well-known ideas as to the advisability of a big navy, the best and largest aggregation of fighting ships in the world.

The Culver cadets, who were present as the guests of the veterans, gave three rousing cheers for the navy. The Mexican Band played the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Dixie" and the audience sang the national anthem. The Mexican War veterans, who in the Mexican National Band created a delicate situation in the meeting of the veterans, but good taste and diplomacy prevailed and the embarrassment was avoided. It had been the intention of Colonel Beeler to speak on the fighting qualities of the Americans in the Mexican War, but on account of the Mexicans present, splendid fellows, and each a commissioned officer in the Mexican army, he would say nothing that might draw a comparison between the soldiers of the United States and Mexico, and refrained from speaking. He left his part of the program to Mrs. Moore Murdoch, of Texas, his adjutant. That lady in a diplomatic and considerate speech explained that the Americans were victorious in Mexico because they were allowed to be.
The veterans were guests of the Culver cadets at the latter's ball to-night.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT; WEDDING Pretty Romance at Buffalo Lithia Springs Results in Surprise Marriage at Clarksville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOYDTON, VA., August 23.—A surprise marriage took place Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at Grace Hotel, in Clarksville, Va., the contracting couple being Miss Anna Knox Taylor, of Mobile, Ala., and Mr. Frank W.
Lloyd, of Clarksville.

The marriage was a romantic one and appears to have been a case of love at first sight. The bride, in company with a married sister, came to Buffalo Lithia Springs, distance eight miles from Clarksville, about three weeks since, to spend the summer. There, for the first time, the couple met, and their acquaintance soon ripened into love.
Love into courtship and courtship into marriage. Only a few of the most intimate friends knew anything of their intention of marrying. The license was quietly procured, the services of the Rev. Edwin R. Carter, rector of St.
James Church, in this place, were engaged, and Wednesday afternoon the couple drove out and on to the Grace Hotel, where the minister was there to make them man and wife. They then drove back to Buffalo Lithia Springs and on yesterday left for the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. Lloyd is president of the Lloyd Lumber Company, of Clarksville, and is a fine young business man.

MADE MURDEROUS ASSAULT FROM BEHIND.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ASHEVILLE, N. C., August 23.—Instead of being able to throw light on the mysterious assault made on him and Miss Elkins, when the vicious assault was made, Charles F. Sullivan, the victim, who at last has recovered consciousness, declares that he did not get to see his assailant before he was struck, and can imagine no one who would have come to assault him. It is now probable that the guilty party will never be caught, as the officers have absolutely no clue on which to work.

Roonoke District Conference.
BLACKSBURG, VA., August 23.—The Roonoke District Conference will hold its annual fall meeting with the Whitner Memorial Church, Blacksburg, next week. The sessions of the conference will begin Monday night with a sermon by Rev. W. S. Hammond, D. D.
Tuesday will be devoted to the missionary and church extension society, and the body will adjourn Thursday at noon. Sixty delegates will be most hospitably entertained by the members of the Methodist and other denominations.

BLACK HAND KILLS TWO.

Double Daylight Murder in Street of Coaldale, Pa.
COALDALE, PA., August 23.—A double murder, for which the "Black Hand" is held responsible, was committed in a street of this place to-day, and adds another crime to the long list that has been committed in this neighborhood by unknown persons.
While Frank Peknolas and Samuel Ambrose were walking together along Ridge Street they were attacked by several men, and before they could offer effective resistance they were stabbed to death.

Peknolas's throat was cut almost from ear to ear, and Ambrose received a knife wound that pierced his heart.
As robbery was not the motive and as the "Black Hand" has been active in this section, the crime is charged to the members of that mysterious band.
It is known that Peknolas and Ambrose had expressed fear of vengeance at the hands of enemies. The men worked in the mines all night and before leaving for their homes, they had spoken of their fear of being waylaid.
There is no clue to the murderers.

GOVERNMENT IS NOW TAKING HAND

Begins Investigation Into Onancock Negroes' Act of Firing on a Mail Coach.

AN INSPECTOR SEES UZZEL

Has Long Talk With Negro Editor and Rioter Now in Norfolk Jail.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., August 23.—The Federal government has taken a hand in the recent rioting on the Eastern Shore to the extent of investigating the firing on the stage coach. It is said that the coach carried United States mail, and the government is getting in on that ground.
The interests of the government in the case have been placed in the hands of Post-office Inspector Matthews, and that officer is hard at work. He was here to-day, and had a lengthy interview in the city jail with J. D. Uzzel, the negro editor who is credited with having instigated the firing on the coach. Should the identity of those who did the firing or who may have instigated it be found out the Federal government will likely deal harshly with them.
The negroes, Sylvanus Conquest and Sam Burton, who gave themselves up to the militia, now doing guard duty at Onancock and Tasker, were brought here to-night by a detail of ten or twelve soldiers, commanded by Major Salomonson and Captain Gale.
They were placed in the city jail for safekeeping on orders from Governor Swanson, and will be held pending further orders from the Governor.

The negroes was to-day in communication with City Sergeant Lawler by long distance telephone.

Chicago Man Secured Entrance to His

CHICAGO, August 23.—With the aid of a court order modifying an injunction, previously issued against him, Elbert P. Jaycox, who is suing Mrs. Ina Ward Jaycox, who is suing Jaycox for separate maintenance and has secured the injunction restraining him from entering the house, was able to enter his home to-night. He was armed with a hatchet. In the lock of the front door standing her, "It's him," whispered the daughter, "Don't let on that you see him, ma."

Investigation Being Made of Suspension of Bank.

PORTLAND, ORE., August 23.—Outpost investigation among many of the 14,000 de-positors of the Oregon Trust and Savings Bank, the doors of which were closed Wednesday, caused the report to be circulated yesterday that warrants had been issued for officers of the bank. It developed, however, that no warrants had been issued, and that the net result of numerous demands for arrests by certain depositors was the preparation of complaints by the district attorney.

The Easy Meal

has GRAPE-NUTS as its foundation. Ideal on hot days because GRAPE-NUTS requires no cooking and is at the same time a perfect food.

A perfect hot weather breakfast, made up of GRAPE-NUTS and cream, some fruit, soft-cooked eggs and a bit of crisp toast, starts the day right, keeps the blood cool and body and brain well nourished.

Compare the cool, contented GRAPE-NUTS fed man or woman with your meat-fed neighbor who is sweltering and miserable.

You don't have to cook GRAPE-NUTS for the reason that this food is cooked perfectly at the factory. This cooking is done on scientific principles, so that all the starches of the grains are transformed until they are ready for immediate digestion, and yet all the good of the grains is left in.
